

Alexis Nelson, MS, MBA, PMP

Native to the Pittsburgh, PA area Alexis graduated from Robert Morris University with a bachelor's in finance in 2005. Spending the majority of her career in Accounting/Finance she started her 10-year tenure in the Banking industry with Bank of New York Mellon and transitioning to PNC in 2008. During her stay with PNC she worked in Finance, Training and Development and Operations focusing on reporting and process improvements. Recently making the decision to relocate to the Raleigh, NC area Alexis, also moved industries joining the Cisco System team in 2015. Before making Raleigh, her home Alexis obtained her Master's in Business Administration focusing on Innovative Management and a MS in Professional Leadership concentrating in Training and Development. In addition, she has also obtained her six-sigma green belt and Project Management Professional (PMP) certification.

Starting in 2006 Alexis was the President and Founder of The Boyd Nelson Foundation with operations in Raleigh, NC and Pittsburgh, PA. The small Non-Profit organization was purposed to provide education and preparation for the local youth prior to entering their collegiate level academic career. In 2016 Alexis joined the Board of the Consumer Education Services Inc. (CESI) a national debt management organization focusing on the low-to-moderate income individuals. Most recently she joined the board of Carolina Community Impact (CCI) a Chairman. CCI is a community development financial institution (CDFI) mission is to help individuals build their financial health – particularly individuals who have frequently been excluded from traditional financial services markets due to income, asset, or credit limitations. Alexis currently is working to educate and encourage building sustainable wealth and financial literacy within the community starting with her teenage son, Cameron. She is also working on her own company, investing in Entrepreneurs where her core value is embedded in Servant Leadership.